New registration fees for LACCEI 2020

At LACCEI, we want to preserve the commitment to encourage academic discourse and we recognize that the presentation of papers is the heart of an academic conference. We further recognize that a key feature of a physical conference is the opportunity to interact informally with colleagues between sessions. Remember that LACCEI is the maximum representative of the OAS Summit of Engineering for the Americas and that the presentations of full papers that meet the specified requirements are published in SCOPUS.

Since some interactions will be limited by the virtual format, LACCEI has made an effort to reduce the fees of this year. We present to you the new discounted fees for LACCEI 2020, which represents a 30% reduction in the initial price, becoming one of the lowest compared to similar conferences.

In order to encourage the participation of our LACCEI family and colleagues, this year we added fees for members participants who are not authors.
